It is hard to forget someone who gave you so much to remember...

In Memoriam
Malcolm Ford

"Memories are like leaves
of gold
They never tarnish or grow old
Locked in our hearts
You will always be
Loved and remembered
For all eternity."

You will forever be missed.

NEWS & TRENDS

1 Texting fines

A woman texts while crossing the street, an act that will now earn a fine in Honolulu after it became the first major U.S. city to fine pedestrians for texting while crossing the street. The fines ranged from $35-$99.

2 Pass the avocados

Enjoying avocado on toast continues to be a growing food trend and was joined by the avolatte – coffee served inside an avocado. Putting more fun in food, unicorn lattes and ice cream appeared, along with donuts decorated with crushed children's cereal.

3 A royal pair

Prince Harry of Great Britain and Meghan Markle, an American actress, feminist and humanitarian, meet with reporters. They announced their surprise engagement in November and were wed in spring 2018.

4 Hazardous stress reducers

A young woman passes the time by playing with a fidget spinner. Fidget spinners were a new hand-held toy designed to reduce stress, that became wildly popular. But the spinners caused anxiety for parents due to safety concerns, including choking, fire and lead poisoning.

5 Fire danger

A Southern California man stops to pray as fires kicked up near his home in early December. The Santa Ana winds blow more fiercely and longer during the early winter, creating numerous wildfires that caused tens of thousands of people to evacuate.

6 From healthcare to taxes

Republicans in Congress, including House Speaker Paul Ryan, talk to reporters about their plans to repeal or modify the Affordable Care Act. Congress made no headway with their controversial healthcare plans in 2017, so both the House and Senate passed tax reform.

Riding out the storm

Rescue workers evacuate stranded residents in Texas during the 2017 Atlantic hurricane season, which was one of the busiest in years with 10 hurricanes forming and six reaching Category 3 or higher. Hurricane Harvey slammed into south Texas on Aug. 25 as a Category 4 and then stalled, causing catastrophic flooding. Hurricane Irma struck several Caribbean islands before hitting the Florida Keys as a Category 4 storm, and then traveled north through Florida. Hurricane Maria left a swath of devastation across Puerto Rico.

A virus runs rampant

A nurse holds a vial of the season's flu vaccine, which was less effective than normal this year due to the particularly aggressive H3N2 strain of influenza. The outbreak was widespread in every state except Hawaii and caused the Centers for Disease Control to declare it an epidemic.

1 Women speak out

Protestors rally in London as part of the Time's Up and #MeToo movements, which encouraged women to share their stories and end harassment. Many public figures faced backlash after victims came forward with allegations of sexual misconduct. Time magazine named "The Silence Breakers" its 2017 Person of the Year. Merriam-Webster declared "feminism" the 2017 Word of the Year.

2 A brutally cold winter

Revelers brave frigid temperatures at the New Year's Eve celebration in Times Square. An arctic burst dropped the temperature to nine degrees, the second coldest ball drop on record. New York wasn't the only place facing a cold winter. International Falls, Minnesota, which dubs itself the "Nation's Icebox," hit a record low of -36 degrees. Despite the cold wave, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration declared 2017 the globe's third warmest year on record.

3 Twice the type

Twitter's signup page, which averaged roughly 330 million monthly active users, displays on a smartphone. In November 2017, Twitter doubled its character limit from 140 to 280, to mixed reviews. The most popular social media platforms among American teenagers were Instagram and Snapchat (according to Science Daily).

4 Slime!

A group of girls stir together the ingredients for slime. This gooey, homemade gunk experienced a resurgence in popularity. Most recipes require only a combination of white glue and laundry detergent, with food coloring to make it bright.

5 Rising tensions

A South Korean soldier stands watch at Panmunjon village, on the border with North Korea. Tensions between the North and the rest of the world continued to rise, as the small, isolated country continued missile tests despite facing sanctions. North and South Korea resumed talks after two years of silence, during which the South allowed North Korea to send athletes to the 2018 Winter Olympics.

6 Unicorn everything

The limited-edition Starbucks Unicorn Frappuccino fills the pages of Instagram. The brightly-colored coffee concoction changed color and was an instant hit on social media. The unicorn trend didn't stop there, spreading to foods like bagels, toast, cake and smoothies and even outside the kitchen, with brightly-dyed unicorn hair and multi-colored painted nails.
